

Case Study - Tessuto Vertical

TESSUTO
VERTICAL

Company Profile

Tessuto Vertical is a supplier of exclusive contract wallcoverings for use in a variety of commercial buildings, including office complexes, hotels, motels, convention centers, healthcare facilities and more. The company sells primarily through sales representatives, although it also offers direct sales in areas where there is no representation.

The Challenge

Managing faxes and processing sales orders with multiple office locations and a distributed workforce.

The Solution

Tessuto Vertical chose MyFax based on the ratings of people who were already using the service. They setup MyFax so all faxes would be directed to email; the staff uses iPhones and know immediately when a fax comes in.

Because faxes come in from all over the country, Tessuto Vertical opted for a toll-free number. It makes the company look larger than it is, and makes it easy for customers to work with them. At a time when all businesses are scrutinizing expenses closely, Tessuto Vertical says no one hesitates to call a toll-free number.

The Results

Tessuto Vertical estimates that MyFax saves each user 20 to 30 minutes per day in document management alone. The most important result, however, is their sales are no longer at risk due to the nature of paper faxes and fax machines.

faxing simplified. anytime. anywhere.
